HOW WILL I GET TO LUND?

Lund is situated close to two major airports in the region, Malmö Airport (Sturup) and Copenhagen Airport (Kastrup). Sturup is approximately 30 km south-east from Lund and Kastrup is in Denmark. In Lund's town centre you will find train station.

Malmö Airport – Sturup

Sturup has good connections with Stockholm but few international flights.

Shuttlebuses from Sturup to Lund depart, usually in connection with flights arriving from Stockholm. https://www.flygbussarna.se/malmo?gclid=EAlalQobChMIwcupvcGJ2gIVVsayCh1p2QdHEAAYASAAEgISvD\_BwE

You can also take a taxi that takes approximately 30 minutes and costs about 350 SEK.

Prices should be checked beforehand: <https://www.taxiskane.com/malmo>

Train

Lunds Central station is Sweden's most visited train stations. It is possible to get a connection to any train taking you to desired part of Sweden. Except national rail company SJ you can take local Pågatåg to take you to destinations in the Skåne region. For more information, prices and timetable please see <https://www.skanetrafiken.se/>

Pågatåg from Malmö to Lund are departing every 10 min. Tickets can be bought in the vending machines or Skånetrafikens App.

Öresundståg is connecting Copenhagen via Kastrup and Malmö with Lund Central station. Cost of the ticket is approximately 110SEK to Malmö and 140 SEK to Lund. More information can be found on the <https://www.oresundstag.se/> and <https://www.skanetrafiken.se/>
